

Jonah

You Can Run, But You Can't Hide

- The Story is True
- The Story is Brief
- The Story is Relevant

Jonah

You Can Run, But You Can't Hide

Man on the Run:
How to get out of God's will
Jonah 1

Man on the Run:
How to get out of God's will Jonah 1

I. The Demands God Gives

Man on the Run:
How to get out of God's will Jonah 1

II. The Decisions We Make

A dramatic painting of a ship on a stormy sea under a dark, cloudy sky. The ship is a three-masted vessel with white sails, sailing on a dark, choppy sea. The sky is filled with heavy, dark clouds, and a bright light source, possibly the sun or moon, is visible on the horizon, creating a strong contrast and illuminating the scene. The overall mood is somber and dramatic.

Man on the Run:
How to get out of God's will Jonah 1

III. The Disobedience We Share

Man on the Run:
How to get out of God's will Jonah 1

IV. The Discipline God Brings

Man on the Run:
How to get out of God's will Jonah 1

Some things to think about when
you are “on the run”:

- Disobedience is always bad.

Man on the Run:
How to get out of God's will Jonah 1

Some things to think about when
you are “on the run”:

- You always fall down quickly
and get up slowly.

Man on the Run:
How to get out of God's will Jonah 1

Some things to think about when
you are “on the run”:

- The Devil will always have a boat!

Man on the Run:
How to get out of God's will Jonah 1

Some things to think about when
you are “on the run”:

- God will always be waiting,
watching and working.

It is the patience of God
that allows us to run.

It is the wisdom of God
that provides the ship.

It is the providence of God that brings the storm.

It is the kindness of God
that sends the great fish.

Dr. Ray Pritchard

Jonah