Will I Ever be able to Change? Genesis 32

I. The Crisis That Gets It Going

“Complacency is the deadly enemy of spiritual progress. The first step toward revival is to become thoroughly dissatisfied with yourself.”

A.W.Tozer

Proverbs 28:13

He who conceals his sins does not prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.

Jeremiah 3:12-13

“Return, faithless Israel,’ declares the LORD, ‘I will frown on you no longer, for I am merciful, I will not be angry for ever. Only acknowledge your guilt—you have rebelled against the LORD your God, and have not obeyed me”

- III. The Confession That Gets God Involved
- IV. The Cooperation That Carries Us Through

“That which hinders us in our growth in grace is not so much our spiritual weaknesses, as it is our confidence in our natural strengths. God must therefore lay His hand upon us at the point of our strength, to make us conscious of our utter helplessness.”

A. W. Pink

Some Questions to Ask:

- How bad does the crisis have to be?
- Am I willing to endure until God intervenes?
- Am I willing to embrace transparency and take responsibility?
- Am I willing for Him to take my strength and turn it into weakness so that I will be totally dependent on Him?
