Deuteronomy 6:10-12 (NIV)

When the LORD your God brings you into the land he swore to your fathers — a land with large, flourishing cities you did not build, houses filled with all kinds of good things you did not provide, wells you did not dig, and vineyards and olive groves you did not plant — then when you eat and are satisfied, be careful that you do not forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of slavery.

Psalms 78:4-11 (NIV)

We will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, his power, and the wonders he has done..... so the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born, and they in turn would tell their children. Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget his deeds but would keep his commands. They would not be like their forefathers — a stubborn and rebellious generation, whose hearts were not loyal to God, whose spirits were not faithful to him..... They forgot what he had done, the wonders he had shown them.
